

KarelCAD Resource Centre and Productivity Tools Released

KarelCAD has seen a growing demand for high level support and productivity from within the marketplace over the past 12 months. This can be attributed to the need for companies to retain their existing team and get the best performance from the assets they have in place.

To assist our clients we have created two services available through our online portal <http://www.karelcad.com.au/resourcecentre.htm>

1. KarelCAD Resource Centre – Our online Resource Centre is a portal that provides access to Autodesk data and training, e-learning courses and video tips, design video, industry projects and information about all Autodesk and KarelCAD Design Solutions.
2. KarelCAD Productivity Tools – Find information about your industry and the design solutions available. Autodesk white papers, product details, Autodesk Solutions and Resources, Lynn Allen tips and tricks. In fact the productivity tools include links and items that are all there to help you learn more about your design solutions and specific industry.
